ECONOMIC FUTURE OF THE DELTA

The Delta Protection Commission is charged with preparing the Delta Economic Sustainability Plan for submittal to the Delta Stewardship Council. The Delta Stewardship Council must review and consider the Delta Economic Sustainability Plan as it prepares and finalizes its Delta Plan – a strategic plan for managing water and ecosystems needs over the next half century. For more information, contact Margit Aramburu, MAramburu@Pacific.edu, 831.419.0905.

You are invited to attend a public meeting hosted by the Delta Protection Commission to discuss the draft results of this current in-depth evaluation of the economic future of the Delta. The Public Draft Delta Economic Sustainability Plan can be viewed at www.Delta.ca.gov. You may submit written comments before Friday, September 2, 2011 to ESPComments@Pacific.edu.
