Interested in Participating in Government?

Supervisor Gioia is Seeking Volunteers for County Advisory Boards

I'm looking for interested, motivated residents to serve on a few Contra Costa County citizen advisory boards. These voluntary boards usually meet monthly and advise the Board of Supervisors on a variety of issues. They play a vital role in county government, and I'm grateful for the input they provide.

Applications are currently being accepted from residents of District 1 for seats on the following boards: (District One includes Richmond, N. Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, El Sobrante, Kensington, part of Pinole, Tara Hills, Montalvin Manor, East Richmond Heights and Rollingwood.)

COMMISSIONS
First 5, Children and Families Commission – alternate
Alcohol and Other Drugs Advisory Board
Economic Opportunity Council
Fire Protection District's Fire Advisory Board (must live in unincorporated area)

MUNICIPAL ADVISORY COUNCILS
El Sobrante Municipal Advisory Council (must live in unincorporated El Sobrante)
Kensington Municipal Advisory Council – alternate seat (must live in Kensington)
North Richmond Municipal Advisory Council (must live in N. Richmond)

For more information about each board go to the Contra Costa County website (www.co.contra-costa.ca.us) click on Board of Supervisors, then on Appointed bodies, committees and commissions. You'll find links to a scroll-down list with specifics on all County Advisory Boards, including a staff contact person, and to an application that can be downloaded and printed.

You can also check on my website (www.cocobos.org/gioia) and click on Community Advisory Boards, then a link to download an application.

Or, contact Kate Rauch in my office at 510-374-3231 or kate.rauch@bos.cccounty.us.

Respectfully,

John Gioia
