Contra Costa County Supervisors John Gioia and Federal Glover will host a joint town hall meeting for new constituents on Oct. 20 in Pinole.

The meeting will be from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the council chamber at Pinole City Hall, 2131 Pear St.

Gioia's District 1 recently added eastern Pinole and part of unincorporated Tara Hills; he also represents all West Contra Costa south of Pinole, including El Cerrito, Richmond and San Pablo and unincorporated areas surrounding those cities.

Glover's District 5 shifted westward, ceding Bethel Island, Oakley and southern Antioch to Supervisor Mary Piepho's District 3 while adding Port Costa, Crockett, Tormey, Rodeo, Hercules, western Pinole and part of Tara Hills, all formerly represented by District 2 Supervisor Gayle Uilkema.

Glover's district also newly includes Martinez and adjacent unincorporated areas as well as unincorporated areas north of Concord. Glover continues to represent Bay Point, Pittsburg and northern Antioch.

Glover plans further town meetings in his other new constituent areas, said his policy analyst, Ed Diokno.
