Film Fest & Silliness: Two Fun Events to Consider!

There's rarely a shortage of interesting community events and outings in West Contra Costa. I'd like to share a couple with you -- the Lunafest Film Festival fundraiser at El Cerrito High School this weekend, and in two weeks, Richmond's Silly Parade.

Here are the details:

What: LUNAFEST – Women's Film Festival; Shorts films By, For, About Women

When: Saturday, March 31, 7:30 p.m.

Where: El Cerrito High School Performing Arts Theatre

540 Ashbury Avenue, El Cerrito

Benefit: All proceeds go to the Breast Cancer Fund, El Cerrito High Media

Academy, and World Neighbors nonprofit

For more information: Sabrina Chin 510-596-6400, or schin@clifbar.com

####

What: Richmond Silly Parade - Music, dance, costumes – all done with humor!

When: Saturday, April 14, 11 a.m. (Rain date April 21)
Where: Parade starts at 23rd Street and Macdonald Avenue

For more information: 510-235-5519, or richmondsillyparade@gmail.com

I hope to see you at one, or both.

John Gioia

Supervisor, District One Contra Costa County 11780 San Pablo Ave. Ste D El Cerrito, CA 94530 510-374-3231 Phone 510-374-3429 Fax www.cocobos.org/gioia