"Hot Time in the Oil House" Fundraising Dinner Fun for the Rosie the Riveter Trust

The community is invited to a fundraising dinner & sneak preview on Saturday, April 28 of the Rosie the Riveter WWII/Homefront National Historic Park Visitor's Center at the historic Ford Assembly Plant in the Richmond Marina. There will be delicious food, cocktails, and music.

The official grand opening is scheduled for Saturday, May 26, but dinner attendees will have a special opportunity to check out the new Visitor's Center as a part of the evening's festivities.

Tickets are required for the gala event, and all proceeds will go to the nonprofit Rosie the Riveter Trust, which supports park programs and activities. 1940's cocktail wear is encouraged!

As a former board member of the Rosie Trust, a fan of the historic park, and a resident of Richmond, I encourage anyone who can to enjoy this festivity and support a wonderful educational resource.

If you can't make the dinner, check the website (www.rosietheriveter.org) for details on the Visitor Center's May 26 public grand opening.

Respectfully,
