Community and Faith Leaders Prepare for Richmond's 5th Annual Multicultural, Anti-Violence Caravan

- WHAT: In response to the community's cry to stop the violence, Totally Led Ministries is mobilizing the 5th annual anti-violence caravan. Dozens of residents including faith and community leaders are expected to show up to this year's "Stop the Violence Caravan: One Family, One City, One Community" event. The caravan will leave from 3 different locations at 10th Street and Pennsylvania (Lucas Park), 34th Street & MacDonald Ave (Nicholl's Park), and 1st Street & MacDonald (Church of Deliverance Church Parking Lot) in Richmond. The assembly will move simultaneously in a show of unity and solidarity and will convene at the corner of 14th & Marina Way (the edge of the Richmond Bart Station). The afternoon will be filled with words of encouragement, sentiments from the family members of the slain victims, food, guest speakers, entertainers, including Gospel Recording Artist Eugene Cole!!!
- WHO: Rev. George Brown, Totally Led Ministries; Supervisor John Gioia; Mayor Gayle McLaughlin, City of Richmond; Richmond Police Chief Chris Magnus; community residents and leaders.
