ALAMO, CA: Supervisor Mary N. Piepho will be at the Livorna Park in Alamo on June 29, 2007 at 6:15 P.M. along-side Steve Mick, Chair of the R-7A Parks and Recreation Committee for Alamo. The reopening will include a formal ribbon cutting by Supervisor Piepho and Steve Mick followed by the 1st Concert in the Park series performed by "Boothill...country at its best."

During the past year, Livorna Park has undergone numerous changes to comply with current Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) standards. With the numerous upgrades and landscaping improvements, the park was enhanced to provide the Alamo area with a state-of-the-art facility.

Many members of the surrounding communities flock to the park for its various amenities including a gazebo, vast open space, and premiere play equipment.

Livorna Park will host a variety of music genre throughout the summer with dates available on Supervisor Piepho's website <http://www.co.contra-costa.ca.us/depart/dis3/index.htm> .

"The Community has worked closely with the County to bring this grand facility to you," said Piepho. "Come out and enjoy the park!"

Please join Supervisor Piepho in celebrating the official start of summer!
