Health Care Coverage Information

In August 2010, eligible residents of California will be able to apply for health care coverage through the state's Pre-Existing Condition Insurance Plan program. This coverage is available as part of the new federal health care reform law.

The Pre-Existing Condition Insurance Plan will cover a broad range of health benefits, including primary and specialty care, hospital care, and prescription drugs. All covered benefits are available for you, even if it's to treat a pre-existing condition.

To Qualify:

You must be a citizen or national of the United States or lawfully present in the United States. You must have been uninsured for at least the last six months before you apply. You must have had a problem getting insurance due to a pre-existing medical condition.
