

HAP MAGEE RANCH PARK

This 17.2 acre historic park was once owned by the colorful rancher Hap Magee. An old barn sign read, “Welcome Cowboys and Cowgirls” when the property functioned as a cattle ranch and hosted small rodeos. Prior to Hap Magee’s ownership, the site served as a summer camp for orphans in the 1920s - 1940s. Three old buildings from the orphanage remain today at the park. Two of the buildings have been refurbished and are available for community rentals, such as meetings and weddings. Trail links to Las Trampas, Iron Horse and Mt. Diablo Regional Trails are within a half mile of Hap Magee Ranch Park.
