

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

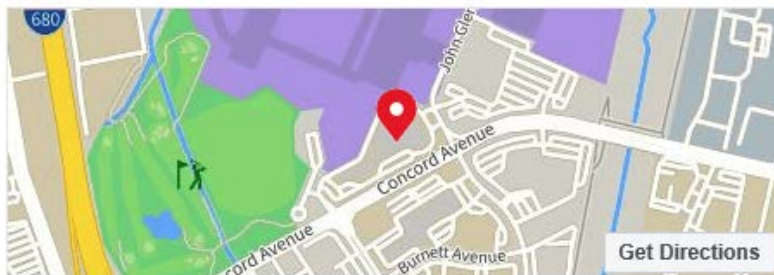

Santa is Coming to the Buchanan Field Airport in Concord

November 26, 2018, Concord, CA – Contra Costa County Public Works' Buchanan Field Airport in Concord will have a special visitor. On Saturday, December 1 at 10:00 AM, Santa will be arriving at Buchanan Field Airport for a very special visit. Santa's greeting will happen behind the Crowne Plaza Hotel, located at 45 John Glenn Drive in Concord.

Santa will hand out candy canes and give all the good boys and girls an opportunity to get their picture taken with him, free of charge. In the event of rain, Santa will take pictures inside the Crowne Plaza Hotel. Santa and his helpers would appreciate it if everyone wanting a picture could bring a non-perishable food item or a monetary donation for the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano. For more information on Santa's visit, please click on the Buchanan Field Airport Facebook page here.

🕒 Saturday, December 1, 2018 at 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM PST
5 days from now - 6–15°C Rain

📍 Behind Crowne Plaza Hotel (45 John Glenn Drive, Concord, CA) Hide Map

About Contra Costa County Public Works Department:

Contra Costa County Public Works Department (CCCPWD) maintains over 660 miles of roads, 150 miles of streams, channels and other drainage and over 200 County buildings throughout Contra Costa County. CCCPWD provides services such as Parks and Recreation, Sand Bag Distribution and Flood Control throughout unincorporated areas of Contra Costa County. CCCPWD operates two airports, Buchanan Field in Concord and the Byron Airport in Byron. For more information about CCCPWD, please visit us here.

CONTACT: Steve Padilla, 925.723.2382

###